Thank you,

www.noozhawk.com

This local on line news source wrote the nicest article on mom and dad's little house. In fact it was so nice I thought maybe grandma wrote it. Anyway, if you want you can read it by going to www.noozhawk.com and entering Ablitt House. It also includes a virtual tour of the interior. Or you can simply go to www.youtube.com, enter Ablitt House, and start the tour directly. Finally we're told HGTV will be featuring the house in their new series, Extreme Living, sometime in July – but they didn't give us an exact time and date.

Kind of neat when you consider the house only occupies 361 square feet of downtown Santa Barbara real estate.
